Generation No. 1

1. William¹ (Cannaday, Kennedy) Canaday¹ was born Bet. 1645 - 1650 in Ireland/England, and died Unknown.

Notes for William (Cannaday, Kennedy) Canaday:

William was born about 1645-1650 most likely in Ireland, but possibly in England. Records show that he was transported to Virginia (Virginia, which of course then included Maryland, Pennsylvania and most of the South) in 1665. He is listed in Somerset County, Maryland in 1666. It was probably about then that he married. He married Anne Fisher in Somerset May 28, 1667. He had at least two sons, John and Someone (Richard?), and probably a few daughters tossed in for good measure. (Bill Putnam)

Notes for William Canaday:

WILLIAM CANNADAY of Franklin County, Virginia

Much of the information I have on this family comes from the research of Frieda Clark Cannaday who published a book on this family in 1988. Before I found her book, The Cannaday Family of Virginia and West Virginia, all I had was a single group sheet from the Yates Exchange on this William's grandson, Patrick Billie Cannaday done by a B. B. Hooper in 1985. There is also a section on Cannaday families in a book, The Akers Family of Franklin County, Virginia from which some more info was picked up. These are all about this particular branch of the Cannadays.

The Senior William Cannaday was in Virginia in the 1700s, and again was not the original immigrant. Some members of this family were Quakers, and I feel that this line and mine must be connected back about 1700 or earlier.

WILLIAM CANNADAY, SR.

There are only a few bits of recorded information on William. He bought land in Henry County, Virginia in 1779. This was probably in what is now Franklin County that was formed out of Henry in 1785. In 1786 and 1787, there are two other deeds in Franklin County. There is a 1792 deed in Franklin County and his death record in Franklin County in 1801. His estate settlement is dated November 18, 1801.

William was born around 1730 (in Kent County, Maryland, a son of John and Margaret Cannaday if my guess is correct), and was married by 1750. He died in Franklin County in 1801. Mrs. Cannaday gives his wife's name as Nancy. She states family tradition indicates the family came from Buckingham County or nearby in central Virginia. There is a reference in Buckingham County showing a William Kennaday owning lands next to Charles Macey. The Macey was undoubtedly Charles Macy from Nantucket, another prominent Quaker family. From Mrs. Cannaday's work, I get the names of five children and I have added a sixth based on the estate settlement. In that settlement, four of the five children all agreed to sell their shares to William Cannaday, Junior. (Rita's NOTE: I have a transcription of the Indenture Franklin CO., VA Deed Book 4, pg 243, 244. And it calls the 2nd William Canaday "William Canaday Sen"

This is the only mention I have of this William Junior, other than what appears to be his marriage record in Franklin County, Virginia. (Bill Putman)

Rita's NOTE: I have a transcription of the Indenture Franklin CO., VA Deed Book 4, pg 243, 244. And it calls the 2nd William Canaday "William Canaday Sen"

William Cannaday who was granted land on Runnetbag Creek in Franklin Co VA. in 1779 and 1782 from Thomas Jefferson, then Governor of VA. The grants were for 158 acres and 551 acres respectively. The Cannaday home is still standing, but barely. It is THOUGHT that William Cannaday of Franklin Co was from the Someset Co, Maryland Cannadays who were in Md. as early as 1666. There was a Joseph Cannaday/Kennedy who came in 1635, John Cannaday in 1642. I notice that some folks in the Ancestry.com have quoted from my book and say for sure that William of Franklin Co was the son of John Jr. (1707) and Margaret Summers.

Back to William of Franklin Co - - it is thought that he may have lived in Buckingham Co VA before moving to Franklin Co. for he was friend and neighbor of a number of former Buckingham Co residents who later moved to Franklin Co.

William died ca. 1800 for his land was divided in 1801 when his son William Jr. bought his siblings' shares. William left a widow Nancy, and ch: William Jr, James (father of Patrick Billy who had 24 children) Betty, Misniah, John, and Nancy. - (Billie Redding Lewis.)

A Cannaday researcher stated to me that the 3rd President of the United States (Thomas Jefferson) was related to the Cannaday's of Endicott, VA. This researcher stated that President Jefferson didn't sell the land to William Cannaday, Sr. (founder of Endicott), but rather gave it to him because he was a relative. Seeking information on which Cannaday family member married into either the Jefferson or Randolph families. - Harold V Cannaday II.

He married Elizabeth Rakes 1775. She was born 1756 in Buckingham Co., VA or England, and died September 01, 1853 in Franklin Co., VA.

Notes for James Canaday:

It is believed that James Cannaday was one of the sons of William that came to America about 1600. It is also believed that there that were four brothers; William, James, John, and Charles. Legend says, that there was an argument aboard ship, which caused one of the brothers to split from the group. He is thought to have changed the spelling of his name to begin with the letter K. The Cannaday family is thought to have gone from Scotland, to Holland, to Germany, then to America, and directly to Virginia.

James was present, when the old timers talked of seeing Washington Cross the Delaware River, during the Revolutionary War. James was asked to speak at gatherings, and to give a report on the frontier. James Cannaday fought under General Greene in the Revolution, in the 3rd Virginia Regiment, in Captain Gustavus Brown Wallace's Company.

James and Elizabeth (Rakes) Cannaday owned about 500 acres of land, two hundred of which is now under water at the Philpot Reservoir. The Cannaday family lived in the western part of Franklin county, Virginia. The homestead was originally of log construction and is now covered with Wood boards. It is in poor condition, but was still standing in 1998, making it Over 200 years old. The present owner is a Rakes, who grew up in the area. An old Cemetery is on top of the Hill behind the home, and this is where I believe the Cannadays are both buried. The home is on Runnett Bag Road, named after the creek running next to it, in a rural area, south of Rocky Mount Virginia. At one time, James Cannaday's land stretched from Runnett Bag Creek to Otter Creek, down to the Smith River. It is a very pretty setting!

Elizabeth Raikes/Rakes was related to Sir Robert Raikes of England, who was the founder of Sunday Schools. The relationship is uncertain. Sir Robert Raikes took his Bible and song book into the fields, where he taught the herders. He is known to have come to America. Elizabeth lived to be 105.

There is a legend about the old homeplace and Elizabeth (Rakes) Cannaday. It is told that when forks were invented, a man killed his wife with a fork. Elizabeth, who had just gotten a fork herself, vowed to never use it again. She stuck it behind the mantle on the fireplace, and said if any person would remove it from that place, they surEly would have bad luck! The fork remained in the chimney until 1970, when it disappeared. Soon after, a Young fellow of the area was charged with murder.

Another legend concerning the Cannaday home, involved Elizabeth and her daughter-in-Law, Elizabeth. After the death of James Sr. and his son, Elizabeth and her daughter-in-Law were living in the house together. The ladies could not get along, so they took their dispute to court. The judge ruled the house should be divided down the middle with a door being put on each side in the front. This still didn't work, so the daughter-in-Law moved to West Virginia. The two doors still remain, as proof of this story.

A famous Cannaday, whose roots go back to Virginia, is Ward M. Cannaday. He is credited with being the person who is responsible for making the "Jeep Corporation" of Toledo Ohio, into the company it is today. "By One and One" by Spitzer

34. Nancy Jane "Nannie"⁷ Canaday (William Patrick "Billy"⁶, James⁵, William⁴, John³, John², William¹ (Cannaday, Kennedy) Canaday) was born December 08, 1808 in VA²⁴, and died May 06, 1892 in Warren Co., Tenn. She married Anderson Lafayette Taylor January 12, 1832, son of David Taylor and Nancy Penn. He was born January 01, 1805 in Virginia, and died January 07, 1892 in Warren Co., TN.

Notes for Anderson Lafayette Taylor:

Few areas in the United States symbolize the American pioneer spirit more than Cumberland Gap. Crossing the gap meant encountering America's first western frontier and symbolically severing European ties. Between 1760 and 1850 more than 300,000 people walked, rode, or were carried over the Appalachian Mountains through Cumberland Gap.

Formed by a stream and enlarged by wind and weather, the Cumberland Gap, named by surveyor Thomas Walker for his English patron, the Duke of Cumberland, son of George II of England, is fifteen hundred feet above sea level. Various types of sediments including shells, shale, limestone, and gravel surround the area and attest to the great earth disturbances that formed the gap.

Settlers followed a trail over the gap initially used by Native Americans, who had enlarged it from an animal trace. They were entering a prized hunting ground, coveted by the Shawnees to the north and Cherokees to the south. The French and Indian War, followed by the American Revolution, briefly halted white settlement. But with the restoration of peace, the flow of hunters, settlers, and land speculators through Cumberland Gap was resumed. Perhaps the most famous traveler was Daniel Boone, who agreed to take settlers north into Kentucky after first making several hunting trips through the gap.

By 1800 the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Virginia claimed the area through the Cumberland Gap. After 1840 a weekly stage carried freight, mail, and passengers and gave the area a prosperous commercial appearance. During the Civil War, the gap changed hands four times as the North and South fought for control of this strategic gateway. Initially considered part of Kentucky, and therefore under Union control, the first troops to occupy the Cumberland Gap were Confederate forces under the command of Brigadier General Felix K. Zollicoffer. Union commander Brigadier General George W. Morgan took the "American Gibraltar" on June 18, 1862. Morgan did not remain at the gap, however, and Confederates reoccupied the area immediately. After a year of inactivity, Union forces reappeared, and Major General Ambrose E. Burnside demanded and received unconditional surrender. The gap was not seriously threatened again during the remainder of the war.

In 1841, Fate and Nannie Taylor came through the Gap with 5 of their children. As one descendent put it "Nannie had one in her arms and one in her belly." One son died on the way and the youngest Mariah Jane died after they reached Tennessee but a new daughter was born 2 years later and named for the dead infant. Martha Jane Taylor who became my great grandmother.
