

Descendants of Arthur (Onby) Ownby

Generation No. 1

1. Arthur (Onby)¹⁶ Ownby (Thomas¹⁵ Oneby, Thomas¹⁴, John¹³, John (of Ondeby Esq)¹² Ondeby, Richard¹¹, Thomas (of Leicester & Warwick)¹⁰, Unknown⁹, John (of Rutland)⁸, Thomas (of Stoke Dry & Rutland)⁷, Thomas (of Sadington)⁶, John (of Stoke Dry & Saddington)⁵, Roger⁴, Thomas³, Unknown², Thomas (The Sheriff)¹) was born Abt. 1655 in Leicester, England, and died 1737 in Essex Co Va.

Notes for Arthur (Onby) Ownby:

There is no proof that Arthur is descended from this Thomas. I have placed him here simply to tie in the ancient Ownby/Ondeby line. We have no documentation of when or where he was born.

According to documented items found, it is believed that five brothers came to America in the 1600s. There are records of ship logs on which to base this theory.

William Onesby--Transported with 11 others by William Parry, Nov 11, 1651

Edward Onbrey-----Transported to Lancaster County, VA by George Marsh in 1657.

Marmaduke Onesby--Transported by Cutberth Porter March 9, 1660

Robert Onsby--Transported by Cutberth Porter with 10 other persons in 1662

Stephen Onesby and wife Sarah, Transported to Maryland by Major Thomas Truman, June 3, 1679.

Arthur is not on the ships manifest. He may have been one of the 10 or 11 other persons mentioned. This would imply he was a minor child. Or he may have come on a different ship and those records not found yet. The Oneby family was in the shipping business out of London and it would have been easy to secure passage on any number of ships. We tend to forget that people often traveled back and forth between England and the colonies. Some came and stayed and some came and left, never to return.

There is no other record of the above mentioned persons after they came to the colonies, which is why we assume Arthur is the father of us all.

The earliest record found of him is 1681 when he sold a mare and her increase.

On 21 Oct 1687, one Arthur OWNBEE of Rappa. Co. patented 78 Acres on the South side of the river; corner to the orphans of Tymothy BELL, on the north side of Coleman's Creek, "nigh Wm. VEALE; and land of Maj. HAWKINS," having transported "Geo. SMITH & Teague, an Irish boy." (VA Land Patent Book 7:612) Keziah, wife of Samuel HENSHAW was the daughter of Alice (Ealse) SHIPLEY who died testate in Essex in 1716. By 1720, Samuel HINSHAW had died and Keziah had remarried, to one Thomas COMBES or COMBER

1737: Arthur Onby deceased in Essex Co., Virginia; inventory of estate:

The inventory lists 3 surviving children: JOHN Ownbey , Mary (who married James Williamson), and Elizabeth (who married Carter Wells).

The inventory also lists his grandson Thomas, "the son of THOMAS Ownby and Mary Brooks Stamper."

The foregoing proves that John was his son, and that the late Thomas was his son.

He married Nancy Ann Porter 1760 in Buncombe, NC. She was born 1743 in Orange, Virginia, and died 1818 in Rutherford, North Carolina.

Notes for John 'Johny' Ownbey:

Nickname:<NICK> Johnny

Following the path of migration to the West in Virginia, John Ownby came with his parents, sometime before 1760, to Albermarle County, Virginia (later Amherst County).

There are records of several land transactions for John Ownby in Amherst County, Virginia: (1) On 27 April 1764, John Ownby bought from Charles Parkes, 359 acres, lying on the north branches of the Buffalo River and the north side of Fluvanna. This land ran with the lines of Amrose Porter. (2) On 5 September 1768, John Ownby sold to Martin Trap, 111 acres, lying on north branches of Buffalo River.

(3) On 5 February 1769, John Ownby sold to David Blitz for nine pounds, twelve shillings, 70 acres, situated on the branches of Buffalo River, being a part of a large tract belonging to the said John Ownby. Also John Ownby's wife relinquished her dower rights at that time. (4) On 25 February 1769, John Ownby sold to William Mays, 178 acres, situated on the branches of Buffalo River starting with James Williamson's corner and running with the lines of David Blitz, being a part of a large tract belonging to the said John Ownby.

In the early 1770's, John Ownby and his family migrated to Pittsylvania County, Virginia where Ambrose Porter died leaving a will in 1773. In Ambrose Porter's will, he mentioned his daughter Ann and her five youngest children, namely, John, Milly, Susanna, Ambrose, and Arthur. Each of Ann's five youngest children was willed 'one cow or heifer each to be delivered to them as they come to the age of nine or then years old.'

In the late 1770's, John Ownby and his family moved again to Tryon County, North Carolina (later Rutherford County). Here he began to buy lands and remained until his death. They lived in the area of Colonel Hampton's Mill near Cove Road in Rutherford County, North Carolina.

They were listed in the 1790 through 1820 Federal Census of Rutherford County, North Carolina.

John Ownby was buried in the 'Old Field Cemetery' which is located five miles north of Bat Cave just off North Carolina Highway #9.

24. James¹⁹ Owenby (John 'Johny'¹⁸ Ownbey, John¹⁷ Ownby, Arthur (Onby)¹⁶, Thomas¹⁵ Oneby, Thomas¹⁴, John¹³, John (of Ondeby Esq)¹² Ondeby, Richard¹¹, Thomas (of Leicester & Warwick)¹⁰, Unknown⁹, John (of Rutland)⁸, Thomas (of Stoke Dry & Rutland)⁷, Thomas (of Sadington)⁶, John (of Stoke Dry & Saddington)⁵, Roger⁴, Thomas³, Unknown², Thomas (The Sheriff)¹) was born January 06, 1761 in Amherst, Virginia, and died September 26, 1850 in Union Mills, Rutherford, North Carolina. He married Joanna Sims March 04, 1785. She was born March 24, 1761 in Albermarle, Virginia, and died April 01, 1852 in Union Mill, Rutherford, North Carolina.

Notes for James Owenby:

James was seventeen years old when he entered the Revolutionary War. He fought in the Battle at King's Mountain on 1 November 1778 as a Private in Captain George Taylor's company. He carried water in his hat. He served until 1783.

James lived in Tryon County, North Carolina until he removed to Buncombe county in 1824. He resided in McDowell county in 1845, but lived most of his life in Rutherford County, North Carolina. He owned the farm on Bald Mountain. The original cabin has about fallen down, but a part is still standing, according to Mrs. Carrie Lee Nanney. She claims that James is buried there in the 'Old Field's Cemetery'.

D.A.R states he is buried in Koone family cemetery Route 1, Union Mills, North Carolina. Moved with parents to Tryon County (now Rutherford), North Carolina while still a boy and lived on Green River. Moved with wife about 1824 to Buncombe County and was in McDowell County in 1845. Moved back to Rutherford County with wife in 1846.

Entered the service of his county at age 17. Fought at age 19 as a substitute in Battle of Kings Mountains in Colonel John Sevier's Regiment of 'Overmountain Men'.

1. Entered service first part of November 1778 as a substitute for Henry Kelly, in Captain George Taylor's Company in Colonel Hugh Brevard's North Carolina Regiment in Brigade of General Griffith Rutherford. Discharged 10 April 1779.
2. Entered as draftee October 1779 in Captain Robert Gilkeys' command in Colonel Andrew Hampton's North Carolina Regiment. Discharged 24 March 1780.

She married Powell Stamper Owenby November 17, 1798. He was born 1740, and died 1815.

Notes for Powell Stamper Owenby:

Powell Stamper Ownbey is reported to have been adopted by Johny Ownbey. Whether the surname Ownbey was added or whether Powell Stamper Ownbey is the son of one of Johny's brothers is unknown. He might possibly be the son of the following :

'Marriages of some Virginia Residences' by Wulfeck. Series 1, Vol. 5, p. 16 5. Thomas Oneby m. 27 Jul 1727 to Mary Stamper at Christ Church.

Correspondence to the above remark is a notation from Mr. George Dewey Ownbey: 'I believe the Thomas Oneby you mentioned, marrying Mary Stamper is somehow connected with Powell Stamper Ownbey, who was killed by a fallen tree on Bald Mountain about a mile from where I lived in 1815. His grave is close by where he was killed. He had gone, very early in the morning to chop down a tree to make an Ash trough for his wife. She called him to breakfast, he turned to answer her and the tree fell. The accident took place on Johny Warren's place - also on Bald Mountain, where Powell and his family were living at the time of his death. Buried down the branch from where the Warren place - At Standing Cap Stone, the spot where they stood when hunting. Bill Warren was a heavy bearded man and seemed to know he wanted Carl Searcy to work for him and (Carl) being kid like was usually hard to find.'

He married (2) Lucinda Mary Martin November 13, 1832. She was born March 1791 in South Carolina, and died Unknown in Sevier, Tennessee.

Notes for John Ownbey:

Name Suffix:<NSFX> Jr

John Ownby Jr. served in the War of 1812 with the North Carolina militia. Records from the National Archives show John Ownby as a private in Captain Bradley's Company of North Carolina militia for six months but was not called out until February and continued in actual service for over fourteen days. He was discharged in Rutherford County, North Carolina on 6 March 1815. In 1858 John Ownby applied for a bounty land grant on the basis of his military service. He received a grant of 158 acres in Sevier County, Tennessee.

In 1816, just after the War of 1812 was over, John Ownby Jr. and his family moved from Rutherford County, North Carolina to Sevier County, Tennessee. This Ownby family was the only one listed in the 1830 Federal Census of East Tennessee.

On 4 February 1858, John Ownby Jr. made a will to dispose of his property. In his will, he said, 'I give and bequeath to my son John H. Ownby all my property both real and personal consisting of one hundred and twenty five acres of Land, Cattle, Hogs, Horses, household furniture, etc. I have given and bequeath all my property to said son John in consequence of his kindness in taking care of myself and wife in our age and during our infirmity.'

Buried in Plemons Cemetery, Greenbriar Cove, near Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Nickname:<NICK> Preacher Dick

Name Prefix:<NPFX> Rev

Affectionately called 'Preacher Dick', he was received into the White Oak Flats Baptist Church in October of 1839 'by experience'. In October of 1843, he was granted the right 'to exercise a public gift wherever his lot should be cast.' He was ordained at the church on the 27th of October 1846 'through the assistance of Brothers Isaac Kimbro and Eli Roberts as presbytery...' (Church minutes book of White Oak Flats Baptist Church). This began his long and fruitful service to the Lord and his fellow man.

Beside the Gatlinburg Church, he served New Salem Church, Lebanon in the Glades, Friendship in Greenbrier, the Hills Creek Church and at both Evans's Chapel No. 1 and 2. He also made visits to the Indians in North Carolina. Dr. Burnett, in his book about pioneer ministers credited Richard Evans with converting more than 10,000 souls to Christ and personally baptizing more than 1,800 persons.

He is buried in the Fork of River Cemetery near the Park headquarters in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

He married (1) Mary Jane Cheek 1815 in Robertson or Sumner Co., TN, daughter of Jeremiah Cheek and Tabitha Doyle. She was born 1797 in Orange Co., NC, and died 1827 in Lewisburg, Marshall Co., TN. He married (2) Nancy Perkins 1835. She died 1845. He married (3) Martha L Fisher March 30, 1847 in Marshall Co Tenn, daughter of Jacob Fisher and Nancy Helm. She was born 1827, and died Unknown.

Notes for Edward B "Neddy" Ownby:

In 1833, a law suit regarding sale of Jeremiah Cheek's estate. (Court records in Chancery Court Records 1833, pages 147, 148, 149, 150, 151) Suit filed at Shelbyville, Bedford Co., TN)

Jeremiah's son-in-law, Edward B Ownby had offered $1500 for some of the property. They cautioned people not to let Edward B know the sale date because the person they wanted to sell it to was going to pay only $800-900 and they wanted this second person to be the highest bidder. Later those folks, who had told people not to notify Edward B of sale, filed affidavits swearing they had not tried to keep Edward B from acquiring the property.

"The original was a large log room with stairs that led to a room above the same size. The logs were cedar- the floors were ash. The front door had panel forming a cross to keep out witches. There was a crude cross carved on the side for the same reason.

In the early 1800's John A Murrel was a well known robber, pirate who followed the Natchez Trace and region about. One of his gang is said to have lived in this house. Bands of men would appear. The wife of the one who lived here would prepare food, then she would be banished up stairs and the door locked. There was said to be blood on the wall from some one killed there.

A strange thing was a door in the back of the up stairs room I opened to a second set of steps. Someone added two rooms seperated by an open hall or dog trot. Behind two more were built behind and a kitchen of log sat east of the house seperated by a space. A Big Fireplace was at the east end." submitted by Roberta Ransom Mason, Lewisburg TN. He married Nancy Carol Winstead August 10, 1839, daughter of Samuel Winstead and Fanny Unknown. She was born January 04, 1821 in Near Fulton, Tennessee, and died March 29, 1862 in Tennessee.

Notes for Eli Craig Ownby:

Eli was captured and taken prison by Yankee patrol in 1862. He was held for about 2 weeks and then released. At the time he was widower with 6 children under 12 to take care of.

Family history and several census show Eli born in Kentucky.....perhaps on the way to TN.

The 1880 Cannon Co, TN census show him born in Tennessee.

In the summer of 2000, during a heat wave of 110+ and one of the worst draughts in Texas history, (and for you non Texans, THAT'S BAD). I decided to find my great-great-grandfather's grave. Eli Craig Ownby was buried in 1892 at Pilot Grove Cemetery, which is only about 15 miles from my home. My husband, Darrell, grew up even closer to the cemetery and "knew" all about it. One hot August afternoon we took a ride over there and started walking the stones. We found Eli's daughter Elizabeth Nancy Taylor's, grave but couldn't find his. I had a picture of the grave stone which was about 5 foot tall taken around 1980 when another researcher was visiting from Tennessee. We walked the cemetery twice and couldn't find it. Finally Darrell said, "Maybe it's really at Cannon" (about 3 miles down the road). So we drove to Cannon Cemetery. Walked it twice and couldn't find it. I was determined.....I knew it existed, just where. We went back to Pilot Grove, Darrell laughed and pointed to a little used side road (one he had used for "Parking" back in the olden days) and said "Maybe he's buried in the Black Cemetery". I said "no, he's buried here".....sooooooooooooo....we walked that sucker again. By now we were both sun burned and almost dehydrated and very smelly. Finally on the verge of tears with frustration, I told him "Let's try the Black section". (Remember....this is 1892 Reconstruction Texas timing we are referring to). We went down the hill and there is this beautiful cemetery with tall massive headstones. We start walking the rows and I found 3 Ownby's immediately but no Eli. I even found (lying on the ground) Eli's wife Nancy Carol Winstead Ownby. I kept saying over and over "he's got to be here". Remember it is 110 in the shade but I'm determined. I was saddened by the fact that Nancy Carol was lying in the dirt and also confused, because she had died in 1861 during the Civil War in TN. The family moved to TX in 1881. Why was she buried in TX. Did they dig her up and move her bones or something? We kept walking and looking and finally, out of desperation, (because he was hot and tired and thirsty) Darrell reached down and flipped (that's an understatement) Nancy's stone over and guess what? There was Eli Craig lying face down in the dirt. It bothered me for nearly a year and Darrell and our son, Stuart, planned to go over there and fix the stone but weather wouldn't cooperate, so, in May of 2001, we went and dug a hole and poured concrete for a pad. We let the concrete set up and went back 3 days later and set the stone upright and glued the pieces with epoxy so that finally Eli and Nancy can get up out of the dirt and stand proudly as they deserve to. I later found out that when Nancy died during the war (another story another time) she was buried in an unmarked grave on the family farm so, when Eli died here in Texas, his children had a stone erected with her memorial written on the opposing face of her husband, who never remarried. We never solved the mystery of why Darrell had been told that this was the "Black Cemetery", when actually it was just the "Old Pilot Grove Cemetery". Now that we have the stone erect again you can read the inscriptions.

Nancy's inscription reads, "Dearest loved one we have laid thee in the peaceful graves embrace, But thy memory will be cherished til we see thy Heavenly face".

Eli's inscription reads, "Tis hard to break the tender cord when Love has bound the heart, Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, Must we forever part".

Notes for Terry Cahal Knox Polk Ownby:

Terry Cahal Knox Polk Ownby enlisted in the CSA May 20, 1861 in Paris, TN. Sworn in by Col. W E Travis, (2nd) CO F, 5th Regt, TN Inf. Shows on Hospital rolls "Floyd House and Ocmulgee Hospitals, Macon GA" Nov 6, 1863 as "Convalescent". Dismissed and returned to duty, Nov 7, 1863. He was taken prisoner at Missionary Ridge, Nov 25, 1863 and sent to Rock Island, Ill, Dec 11 1863. Transferred for exchange Mar 6, 1865.

He inherited 100 acres of land from his father in Carrol CO., TN. His wife divorced him for non-support. He bummed around among relatives. In 1900 he is living a a boarder in Pilot Grove, Grayson CO, TX, where he had 9 nieces and nephews and three brothers. They were his support.

Relatives called him "Uncle K" or "K". Family tradition has it that he used his small CSA Pension to travel from one relative to the next. He would move in uninvited and stay until they ran him off. He would not contribute to the household with funds or chores.

One relative quoted" K was obnoxious, and lazy and everybody gre tired of feeding him and listening to his boresome chatter. He was a big talker and annoying. "

Another niece said " I remember Uncle K. He had a twitch in his eyes and face when talking and he was talking most of the time."

Notes for Harriett L Ownby:

The Gibsons home was on a hill with beautiful surroundings. The Pony Express made one of its scheduled stops at the Gibson home, enroute from St Louis to various locations in Tennessee. Harriett was the unofficial, unpaid postmistress. Mail for the folks in surrounding vicinity was left with her and she distributed it in wooden mailboxes which her husband had made for that purpose.

He married Mary Jane Coone February 17, 1812 in Rutherford, North Carolina. She was born 1793 in Rutherford, North Carolina, and died 1881 in Greenbrier, Sevier, Tennessee.

Notes for John Ownbey:

John Ownby lived with his parents in Rutherford County, North Carolina, later Buncombe County, North Carolina.

In 1833, John Ownby and his family migrated to Sevier County, Tennessee from Buncombe County, North Carolina. They made their home in the Glades community, 2nd Civil District of Sevier County, Tennessee. Here John Ownby lived until his death.

John Ownby and his family were listed in the 1840 and 1850 Federal Census of Sevier County, Tennessee.

An interesting story about John Ownby at the time of his death was told by his grandson, Samuel Ownby. It is:

'...Mother told me this story and I don't think my mother would tell me something that wasn't true. Mother said that the day before Grandfather Ownby died he walked from his house to the store, that he told the people in the store that he would die about that same time on the following day. The next day at about the time he had told them this, he layed down on the bed, talked as fast as he could, telling his family how to live, what to do, et c., then turned his face to the wall & died.'

John Ownby was buried in Profitt Cemetery in the Glades.

Notes for William Murphy:

Before William Murphy married Zillah, she was with child. He married her anyway and before the child was born, he came up missing. He spent a few years in Charlotte, North Carolina, driving a stage, where he had a son, James, by Nancy Fagin (illegitimate). He returned to his wife, they forgave one another and each accepted the children and raised them as their own blood.

The private cemetery in which William A. B. Murphy was buried is on Highway #9 just north and west from Bat Cave. It has a narrow, faint path that winds its way up the side with the plot - a lush thick forest and undergrowth carpet which slants away from the approach. Here is the tall grave marker of Zillah (Ownbey) Murphy. It is engraved as Zillah Ownbey, wife of Will A. B. Murphy.

"WKP Owensby, pvt., Co F, 41 Regt., TN Inf, CSA. Enlisted Nov 4 1861 at Camp Trousdale and on roll dated Oct 31, 1862 he is reported "Absent, detailed as hospital nurse at Russelville, KY. His name is not borne on subsequent rolls partly cover period from Nov 1 1862 to Aug 31, 1864." Taken from WKP Ownby Pension Application

"WKP Owensby, pvt Co F, 4 Regt, TN Cav., (subsequently 8 (Smith's Tennessee Calvary)., CSA, enlisted Sept 27, 1862 at Bardstown, KY and was appointed Sgt, Mar 1 1863. He was captured near Hillsboro, TN Sept 17 1864 and was paroled at Camp Chase, Ohio, Feb 13 1865 being rec'd at Boulwares & Cox Warf, James River, VA, Feb 20 1865. He surrendered, May 1, 1865 at Sand Mountain, AL and subscribed to oath of allegiance at Nashville, TN, May 16 1865. signed Robert C Davis, Adjutant General, May 15, 1923" Pension Application

He received a Civil War Veterans Pension. His grandson, Watt and granddaughter Polly remember that when they were little, he would line all of the grandchildren up and give each of them a quarter every month when he received his pension check. Watt II, says at one time he had $5 from the money that Granpa Watt gave him. Considering this was just before the Depression, that was a lot of money.

Watt and his brother Sam were at Camp Chase at the same time. It is unknown if they knew each other were there.

Notes for Marcus Franklin Ownby:

Sarah Ownby remembers Bonnie Parker spending the night with them in the Ownby home while the "road show" was in Berlin. She remembers, too, that Bonnie was a very good dancer. Bonnie was blue-eyed and weighed about 90 pounds. Her act in the family "show" was that of a sharp shooter. Rufus Ownby remembers throwing tin cans in the air for Bonnie's targets. He says she was a crack shot even them. "Bloodletters and Badmen" by Jay Robert Nash.

Notes for Robert Gardner Ownby:

San Bernadino Sun (undated)

"SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP)-The commanding general of an Army reserve unit was found bound and hanged early Wednesday in a headquarters building on Fort Sam Houston, a note pinned to his chest saying his death was not a suicide, the FBI said.

The body of Maj. Gen Robert G Ownby, 48, commander of the 90th US Army Reserve Command, was discovered about 6 AM by an employee reporting for work, said FBI agent Pat Cowley.

'There was a typewritten note that indicated he had met with foul play,' Cowley said. 'The note basically said that he had been killed and hadn't committed suicide.'

The Washington Post, in its Thursday editions, quoted an unidentified source as saying the note pinned to Ownby's body read " 'Captured, tried, convicted of crimes by the US Army against the people of the world, Sentenced and executed.'

When told of the Post's report, Col Robert McDonald, a base spokesman, said, 'I won't confirm or deny that. We are not disclosing the contents of the note.'

Cowley, who also refused to elaborate on the contents of the note, earlier had said it indicted revenge was not the motive and added that he knew of no reason to suspect the killing was the act of a terrorist.

'I haven't been made aware of a terrorist connection and I think I would know something like that by now,' said Cowley.

He said the note was pinned to the clothes on the general's chest. Capt Rudy Purificato, a base spokesman, said Ownby was wearing civilian clothes.

The body was found hanging from a stairway connecting the first and second floors, Cowley said. The major's hands had been tied behind his back with a belt.

The post quoted a Pentagon source as saying that Ownby, who had been tied with a military web belt, had blood on his face as if he had been beaten. The newspaper also said a second note was found at the scene, but its contents were not disclosed.

There was no apparent sign of a struggle,' Cowley said. 'We've heard nothing from anybody since the body was found.'

Leo Soto, executive assistant to the Immigration and Naturalization Service region commissioner in Dallas, said the service at first alerted border stations to the possibility there had been a terrorist killing, but later backed off that interpretation of the slaying.

'We put out a normal border alert and told our chiefs that there was an unconfirmed possible terrorist killing. We called them back later and said it didn't look that way. It's the same thing we would have done if a Sheriff's office had called about a robbery,' Soto said.

Fort Sam Houston spokeswoman Marla Jones would not disclose any details about Ownby's death.

The general was pronounced dead on arrival at the post's Brooke Army Medical Center, Jones said.

Ownby's car was parked outside the building and covered with frost, which indicated he probably was inside the building Tuesday night, Cowley said.

'It was not unusual for him to be there late at night. To my knowledge he was alone in the building. He often worked late,' said Purificato.

Ownby, vice president and corporate director of Delaware Punch Co., became the youngest two star general in the Army upon his February 1982 promotion.

He took command of the 90th ARCOM in August 1981, supervising almost 4,000 reservists in 62 units throughout Texas and one in Bossier City, LA."

HANGING DEATH OF TEXAS GENERAL A MYSTERY TO FEDERAL INVESTIGATORS

By WAYNE KING, SPECIAL TO THE NEW YORK TIMES

Federal investigators sought today to unravel the bizarre hanging death of an Army reserve general, puzzling over contradictory physical evidence and trying to find out about the state of his mind.

Maj. Gen. Robert G. Ownby Jr., 48 years old, was found dead about 6:40 A.M. Wednesday, hanged by the neck with a hemp rope, in a stairwell of the two-story headquarters building at Fort Sam Houston here.

"A military web belt had been looped around the wrists and pulled tight, according to individuals who discovered the body," said a statement issued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation here. "The possibility of the victim having placed the belt around his own wrists has not been ruled out." The general's hands were bound behind his back.

The inquiry by the F.B.I. and by the Pentagon is centered, Federal officials said, on a possibility that the businessman and soldier might have taken his own life, for thus far unexplained reasons, in a manner that suggested a terrorist execution. The officials said murder was also a possibility with the terrorist guise as a cover.

Initial fears that the general had been executed by terrorists were discounted today by officials on the grounds that there apparently was no struggle and that no group claimed responsibility for the killing, as is usually the case in such acts. The fears had arisen largely from a typewritten note that had been attached to the general's shirt with a safety pin.

The note, according to Julian Delarosa, assistant agent in charge of the F.B.I. field office in San Antonio, was in capitals, as follows:

"Captured. Tried. Convicted of crimes by the United States Army against the people of the world. Sentenced. Executed."

On General Ownby's desk in his office was another note, handwritten, dated "10 Jan. 84," with the following text:

"It is about 1145 hours and I started out of the building and caught a glimpse of some people in the building who moved toward the back of the bldg. I don't know who they are or what they are doing. They were apparently startled. I came back here to call the MP's, however I cannot get any of the telephones to work. Just as a precaution I am placing my office keys in my shoe. I will call the MP's as soon as I can get to a phone."

A civilian information officer for the base, Marla Johnson, said today that a check of the telephone system showed that all appeared to be working properly throughout the evening. Found in Civilian Clothes

General Ownby was in civilian clothes and his jacket was found neatly folded on the second-floor landing, his wallet lying atop it, and his glasses, folded closed, alongside it.

As commanding officer of the 90th Army Reserve Command, General Ownby was responsible for conducting a drill one night a week, a weekend drill once a month, and two weeks of summer training. But as a senior officer, he frequently put in more of his own time, especially on administrative duties at headquarters, when he would not be required to wear a uniform.

Although blood was found on the general's face, leading to suggestions that he had been beaten, the Bexar County Medical Examiner, Dr. Vincent DiMaio, said that there were no bruises or other marks suggesting a beating or struggle and that bleeding from the mouth and nose were not uncommon in hangings. He said the death was caused by asphyxiation but awaited lab test results and evidence from the Federal inquiry before ruling whether the death was suicide or homicide.

In Washington, Pentagon officials said the investigation centered on suicide, although murder had not been ruled out. The officials said investigators tried to find the machine on which the note on the general's chest was typed and also obtained samples of the general's handwriting for comparison with the note on his desk. Mental State Studied

They also looked into his mental condition, the status of his business and personal affairs and related matters for a possible motive for suicide.

The F.B.I. statement said the bureau's investigation centered on suicide or murder, also discounting a terrorist assault.

In civilian life, General Ownby was president and chief executive officer of the Bristow Company, which made metal doors and frames for commercial buildings in Texas and surrounding states. He was a director of the Liberty Frost Bank and of the Delaware Punch Company, a maker of soft drinks.

Jim Wharton, a Bristow sales employee who said he was a longtime friend of General Ownby's, said, "It was not unusual for him to go over at night if he had paper work to do." Mr. Wharton said suicide seemed unlikely. "It just seems incredible to me," he said. "He was a fine upstanding man." As to the general's mental state, Mr. Wharton said, "All I can say was he seem very happy, his normal self."

His wife, Ann, concerned at his absence, had twice come to the building earlier in the morning but had found his office door locked, according to a family friend quoted by The Associated Press.

In the immediate wake of the discovery of the body and the note, the Army asked the Immigration and Naturalization Service to go on alert for possible attempts by terrorists responsible for the execution to flee into Mexico. The alert was canceled later in the day. Reservists Taking 'Precautions'

Nevertheless, "solely as a precaution, senior officers in reserve forces are being reminded to take prudent precautions for their own safety," a Pentagon spokesman, Michael Burch, said at a briefing.

He did not go into detail on the form of the reminder, nor would he comment on the circumstances surrounding the death of General Ownby. Mr. Burch observed only that this case "is sort of bizarre and unusual."

Today, Mr. Delarosa of the F.B.I. asserted that there was no evidence to support an investigation into the possibility that the killing was the work of terrorists. "There was no evidence of foul play or violence" at the scene, he said. Fort Sam Houston, where General Ownby was commander of some 4,000 reservists, is not heavily secured and has no fences or gates. Not a 'Terrorist Investigation'

"As far as we are concerned, we are conducting the investigation as a crime on a Government reservation, not as a terrorist investigation," Mr. Delarosa said.

He declined to reveal whether the bureau had information as to General Ownby's mental state or other information to support a suicide theory.

But Dr. DiMaio, without discussing details of the inquiry, said in a telephone interview that he was familiar with suicides disguised as murders.

"People fake murder," he said, "because of an insurance policy, they might feel it would disgrace the family, there are religious reasons, social reasons." Use of Belt Asked if it was possible for a person to tie his hands behind his back with a belt in the manner suggested, he said that it was.

"It's possible, yes," he said. "The easiest way is to make a loop and stick your hands in. You can do it if you want."

He maintained it would also be possible for a person to place a noose around his neck, then pull his hands together behind his back, then jump or leap off a high stair and thus hang himself.

"I've seen it done with hands behind the back," he said.

General Ownby, who was born on Sept. 9, 1935, in Durant, Okla., was commissioned from the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Oklahoma State University, in Stillwater, in 1957 and went on two years of active duty in the infantry. He attended the basic infantry school and the parachute school at Fort Benning, Ga., then served as a platoon leader in the 3rd Infantry, the prestigious Old Guard and honors unit in Washington.

After three years in the inactive reserve, General Ownby joined the National Guard in Texas and switched to the Army Reserve in 1972.

In the 90th Army Reserve Command at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, he served as training officer, personnel officer, deputy chief of staff, chief of staff, and deputy commander before being named commander in 1981. He was the youngest major general in the Army Reserve.
