Francis Winstead (19 Nov 1758 - Oct 1842)

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Francis Winstead, of the County of Hawkins in the State of Tennessee, being weak of body but of sound mind and memory, knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, I do recommend my soul to Almighty God who gave it, and desire that my mortal body shall be decently committed to the earth, with the usual Christian rites, according to the discretion of my executors herein after to be named, and as to the worldly estate of property it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me with, I dispose of it in the following manner, to wit.:

I give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved daughter-in-law, Margaret Winstead, widow of my son, Ephraim Winstead, dec'd, late of said Co. and State, all my estate or property of every description, now owned by me, or which may be hereafter owned by me, to be her absolute disposal and controls forever, in consideration of my love and affection for her, and also in consideration of the love and affection she always bestowed upon me and am only sorry that I have not more to give unto her to remunerate her for her kindness and attention shown to me by her in my old age.

And it is my desire, and I do request it that my said daughter-in-law, Margaret Winstead, together with my grandson, James Winstead, shall be my executors and executrix to this my last will and testament, and I do hereby request that the Country Court shall qualify them as such without requiring from the bond and security, having fell confidence that they will discharge their duties and discharge any debts which may be contracted on "Rhoda's mother was Mira/Myra Singleton. It is told in my family that her father was Zachariah Trent and they were never married. Mira is found in the household of Manuel Lawson in the 1850 census, however, no proof has been found that she was his wife. Manuel had been married before and one of Rhoda's older sisters married a son of Manuel Lawson and his first wife. On the sister's death certificate they list Zachariah Trent as their father. At various times in their lives they used all three names, Singleton, Lawson and Trent".....Helen Bumgar.

Notes for Nancy Carol Winstead:

Nancy died in Tennessee a few short months after giving birth to her 11th child. Her older sons were gone to the Civil War and she was buried in an unmarked grave. She has been given a memorial on her husband's stone at the Old Pilot Grove Cemetery in Pilot Grove, Grayson Co, TX.

Burial: Unknown, Lewisburg, Marshall Co., TN, Memorial at Pilot Grove Cemetery, Grayson Co., TX

Notes for Eli Craig Ownby:

Eli was captured and taken to prison by Yankee patrol in 1862. He was held for about 2 weeks and then released. At the time he was widower with 6 children under 12 to take care of.

Family history and several census show Eli born in Kentucky.....perhaps on the way to TN.

The 1880 Cannon Co, TN census show him born in Tennessee.

In the summer of 2000, during a heat wave of 110+ and one of the worst draughts in Texas history, (and for you non Texans, THAT'S BAD). I decided to find my great-great-grandfather's grave. Eli Craig Ownby was buried in 1892 at Pilot Grove Cemetery, which is only about 15 miles from my home. My husband, Darrell, grew up even closer to the cemetery and "knew" all about it. One hot August afternoon we took a ride over there and started walking the stones. We found Eli's daughter Elizabeth Nancy Taylor's, grave but couldn't find his. I had a picture of the grave stone which was about 5 foot tall taken around 1980 when another researcher was visiting from Tennessee. We walked the cemetery twice and couldn't find it. Finally Darrell said, "Maybe it's really at Cannon" (about 3 miles down the road). So we drove to Cannon Cemetery. Walked it twice and couldn't find it. I was determined.....I knew it existed, just where. We went back to Pilot Grove, Darrell laughed and pointed to a little used side road (one he had used for "Parking" back in the olden days) and said

"Maybe he's buried in the Black Cemetery". I said "no, he's buried here".....sooooooooooooo.....we walked that sucker again. By now we were both sun burned and almost dehydrated and very smelly. Finally on the verge of tears with frustration, I told him "Let's try the Black section". (Remember....this is 1892 Reconstruction Texas timing we are referring to). We went down the hill and there is this beautiful cemetery with tall massive headstones. We start walking the rows and I found 3 Ownby's immediately but no Eli. I even found (lying on the ground) Eli's wife Nancy Carol Winstead Ownby. I kept saying over and over "he's got to be here". Remember it is 110 in the shade but I'm determined. I was saddened by the fact that Nancy Carol was lying in the dirt and also confused, because she had died in 1861 during the Civil War in TN. The family moved to TX in 1881. Why was she buried in TX. Did they dig her up and move her bones or something? We kept walking and looking and finally, out of desperation, (because he was hot and tired and thirsty) Darrell reached down and flipped (that's an understatement) Nancy's stone over and guess what? There was Eli Craig lying face down in the dirt. It bothered me for nearly a year and Darrell and our son, Stuart, planned to go over there and fix the stone but weather wouldn't cooperate, so, in May of 2001, we went and dug a hole and poured concrete for a pad. We let the concrete set up and went back 3 days later and set the stone upright and glued the pieces with epoxy so that finally Eli and Nancy can get up out of the dirt and stand proudly as they deserve to. I later found out that when Nancy died during the war (another story another time) she was buried in an unmarked grave on the family farm so, when Eli died here in Texas, his children had a stone erected with her memorial written on the opposing face of her husband, who never remarried. We never solved the mystery of why Darrell had been told that this was the "Black Cemetery", when actually it was just the "Old Pilot Grove Cemetery". Now that we have the stone erect again you can read the inscriptions.

Nancy's inscription reads, "Dearest loved one we have laid thee in the peaceful graves embrace, But thy memory will be cherished til we see thy Heavenly face".
 Eli's inscription reads, "Tis hard to break the tender cord when Love has bound the heart, Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, Must we forever part".

Notes for Charles Batsell Winstead:

OBIT FROM NY TIMES; Aug 5, 1973, pg 53:

"CHARLES WINSTEAD, FBI AGENT WHO SHOT DILLINGER, DIES AT 82"

Albuquerque, NM - Aug 4: Charles Winstead, who is credited with firing two of the bullets that killed John Dillinger outside the Biograph Theater, in Chicago, in 1934, died yesterday at the Albuquerque Veterans Hospital; he was 82 years old.

Mr. Winstead, for many years considered one of the most accurate pistol shots in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, also spent much of his early years in the agency chasing the gangster team of Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow through Texas and Louisiana. But his meeting with Dillinger on the night of July 22, 1934 was the most publicized event of his career.

He helped gun down the gangster when he emerged from the theater accompanied by two women, Anna Sage and Polly Hamilton.

Mr. Winstead later recalled Dillinger was flanked by his two women companions when he emerged from the theater about 9:30 PM.

It was Anna Sage, "the woman in red" who had tipped off the F.B.I. that Dillinger would be attending the showing of "Manhattan Melodrama" at the Biograph.

Mr. Winstead recalled Dillinger attempted to run into an alley and reached for his gun. The agents fired simultaneously. Dillinger began to "spin like a top and fell dead."

A laboratory analysis revealed that two of the bullets that hit Dillinger were fired by Mr. Winstead.

Mr. Winstead joined the F.B.I. after having served in World War I. He retired in 1943.

Survivors include his widow, Maude, two sons and a daughter.

Letter Written By J. Edgar Hoover to Charles Batsell Winstead on July 23, 1934:

*Mr. C. B. Winstead,
Division of Investigation,
U. S. Department of Justice,
1900 Bankers Building,
Chicago, Illinois.*

Dear Mr. Winstead:

I have been advised by Mr. Purvis and Mr. Cowley that it was you who shot and killed John Dillinger. I wanted to write and to express to you not only my official, but my personal congratulations and commendation for your fearlessness and courageous action in this matter. We are all indeed proud of you. It is particularly gratifying that Dillinger was shot and killed by one of our own men. I am informed that the manner in which you handled yourself on this occasion was indicative of the usual calm, deliberate and at the same time fearless manner which has reflected itself in your work since you entered the Division.

I wanted you to know that I did personally, as well as officially, appreciate the effort and application which you have given to this case from its inception, and in particular your courageous act of last evening, in shooting and killing this notorious desperado.

*Sincerely yours,
(signed) J. Edgar Hoover*

The Cozy Corner was a children's column, originally published in The Semi-Weekly (Farm) News, at Dallas and Galveston, Texas, beginning in late 1890. The first column to appear in The Dallas Morning News was on March 31, 1895, with the final column appearing on January 25, 1903. The editor of the column was "Mr. Big Hat," the nom de plume for Sara Isadore (Sutherland) Miner Callaway.

The earliest columns -- those that appeared in The Weekly (Farm) News, from late 1890, thru March 31, 1895 -- to my knowledge, no longer exist.

"Peggy" was Mr. Big Hat's fictitious goat, who had a tendency to "devour" an occasional letter before they reached the printer; "Oklahoma" was Mr. Big Hat's pet cat. The "cousins" referred to in the letters are, in most instances, fellow contributors to the column:

CHARLIE WINSTEAD, Sherman, Grayson Co., Tex. -- Little Mr. Big Hat: Since I wrote to you last, I have had a birthday and a party. My grandma bought me two white rabbits last summer, and this summer, I have six such pretty little ones. My grandpa has a park; it is called "Batsell's park," and he has about twenty deer in it, besides seven little ones with spots on them. And, grandpa has a pair of peafowls. They have two little ones that look just like little turkeys. One of them hopped into the slop. It did it two times and grandpa had to get it out. The Sherman Register is going to give a bicycle to the most popular little girl in the city, and I think and hope my little cousins, Annie Batsell, will get it. My mother says grandpa has been taking The News ever since she could remember. I saw the cloud, the evening of the cyclone, and have been over the track several times. Mr. Big Hat, my little brother says tell you that he "tan took bikets and till boosters." He means "cook biscuits and kill mother's little chickens." I could write you more, but will ask you one question and quit: Can I have your little sister, Miss Big Bonnet, for my sweetheart?
